Madcap Players Present: "Constant State of Panic." Jan. 13-31. H Street Playhouse. This darkly comic love story follows two people trying to stay together, despite the insanity of the world around them - Dave is afraid of everything, and Sonia is afraid of nothing other than losing her husband. $20. 1365 H St. NE. 800-494-TIXS, www.hstreetplayhouse.com.

"Orestes, A Tragic Romp." Jan. 27-March 7. Folger Elizabethan Theatre. The war is over, Agamemnon and Clytemnestra murdered, and Orestes and Electra await the judgment of the citizens and the gods. Euripides' drama is re-imagined by playwright Anne Washburn in this modern adaptation. $30-$60. 201 East Capitol St. SE. 202-544-7077, www.folger.edu.

"Antony and Cleopatra." Jan. 28-Feb. 28. Shakespeare Theatre Company, Lansburgh Theatre. Synetic Theater explores one of Shakespeare's last great tragedies with their haunting "art of silence." Using a thrilling blend of music, movement, and dance, Synetic Theater will lay bare the heart of this doomed and legendary affair: a story of the love and loss that gave birth to an empire. $40-$55. 610 F St. NW. 202-547-1122, www.shakespearetheatre.org.
