CHAWBARET 6: Magic To Do! Oct. 16, 17, 23, 24, 8 PM. Capitol Hill Arts Workshop. Enjoy an evening of pop songs, standards and show tunes that will take you on a magical journey without leaving Capitol Hill. Proceeds benefit CHAW's and the GLBT Art Consortium's missions of building community through the arts. $15/advance; $20/at the door. 545 Seventh St. SE. 202-547-6839, www.chaw.org.

The 2009 Inkubator Festival. Through Oct. 18. H Street Playhouse. The festival includes classes, readings, showcases, and productions. Visit the website for a full schedule. Free, suggested donation of $10. 1365 H St. NE. www.inkwelltheatre.org.

"Moonlight." Through Oct. 18. Studio Theatre. A poetic meditation on familial love, estrangement and mortality that emerges as a heartbreakingly relevant tale of startling proportions. $42-$63. 1501 14th St. NW. www.studiotheatre.org.

"Much Ado About Nothing." Oct. 21-Nov. 29. Folger Elizabethan Theatre. Reluctant lovers Beatrice and Benedick conceal their attraction behind a merry war of wit in Shakespeare's romantic, clever comedy. The play's musical language resonates with Caribbean rhythm in this colorful production. $30-$60. 201 East Capitol St. SE. 202-544-7077, www.folger.edu.

"The Importance of Being Earnest." Oct. 23-25, 30, 31 and Nov. 1, 6, and 7. Fridays and Saturdays at 8 PM; Sundays at 4 PM. St. Mark's Episcopal Church. St. Mark's Players present this popular play by Oscar Wilde set in England during the late Victorian era, replete with witty dialogue. $20/adult; $18/student, senior citizens; $15/children under 12. 301 A St. SE. 202-546-9670, www.stmarksplayers.org.

"The Alchemist." Through Nov. 22. Shakespeare Theatre. The Alchemist follows the antics of three con-artists: Subtle, Face and Dol. When the gentleman Lovewit flees England to avoid the Plague, the trio set about exposing the social ills of their fellow Londoners. $41-$87. 450 Seventh St. NW. 202-547-1122, www.shakespearetheatre.org.
